DIRECTIONS: In complete sentences, answer each of the following questions on a separate sheet(s) of paper

1. What are the brothers’ names?
2. What experience did the brothers first have in New York?
3. What messages about life did they learn from the homeless?
4. What story did the homeless woman tell about the dogs? What is your reaction to this story?
5. Do you think you could ever do what these brothers did? Why or why not?
6. What kind of childhood did the two brothers have?
7. What is "surf for the cause?"
8. Why did the doctor struggle to leave for Peru? Why did he finally decide to do it?
9. Why are many of the children in the children’s home lame or deformed?

10. One of the speakers said many young people in the west have no purpose or no real reason for living. Do you think that's true?
11. Were the lost children of Peru happy? Why?
12. Have YOU ever had a moment when time stood still, the “stars were aligned” so to speak, and you felt peace knowing you had a purpose in life? If so, explain it a bit.

13. When the woman with AIDS was interviewed and asked what message she would want to leave for her children, what did she say?
14. If you had a terminal illness and were asked to leave a message for your children one day, what might it be?
15. Why did the young man weep when he remembered his mother who died of AIDS? Do you think he found any strength or consolation after interviewing the people who had AIDS in Ghana? Why?

16. The psychologist interviewed said that you can’t base life on fun, as many would like to do, because it is filled with “pathos.” What did he mean?
17. The psychologist stated that suffering has a “meaningful positive of possibilities.” What does he mean?

18. The psychologist said that the suffering of the earth can only be explained on the basis of some cosmic spiritual conflict. What do you think he meant?

19. What kind of relationship do the lepers have with their families?
20. “The lepers are missing everything on the outside, but on the inside they have everything” What is meant by this quote?
21. How is the Ghanian sense of family different from our own culture's?
22. “The family is THE project of the human person.” Do you agree? Why?
23. What surprise did Cliff get at the end of the film? Do you think you would have reacted the same way Cliff did in that situation? Why or why not?

24. What do you think is the overall message of this film? What IS “the human experience”?
25. How does a living, personal relationship with God enable us to live fully human lives?
26. Overall, how would you rate this movie? Would you recommend it to others?