The Human Experience - Seminar Questions

1. What specific examples of each type of poverty (3 kinds) can be seen in the film?

2. “The family is THE project of the human person” - explain this idea and your agreement or disagreement.

3. The Human Experience does not offer a thorough explanation of the deep meaning behind poverty and human suffering, but how does it point to the fact that this answer must be found from Someone Else?

4. How does the film show that all life is sacred, beautiful, and worth defending- even in the midst of great suffering? Be specific.

5. Vatican II teaches that: “Only in the mystery of the Incarnate Word does the mystery of man take on light... [Christ] fully reveals man to himself and makes his supreme calling clear.” What does this mean? How might it relate to the question of suffering and the project of the film?
